Vice Presidents Report – Ray Kearns

Won a couple of grievances for our Warwick members.

Staples continues to be our enemy, causing the closure of Post Offices. "If we don't fight staples full time we'll be in trouble. "Stop" buying at staples. Ray spoke about how members need to step up to help out. The Union is here to protect members, but only so much can be done without the members participating and getting involved. There are only so many stewards, and we're not all going to be here forever.

Clerk Craft Report – Kim Howarth

"Grievances must be filed for all management infractions" There are problems with the PSE Seniority list, and Kim is working with In-Plant Support to get them resolved ahead of the upcoming PSE Conversions.

Maintenance Report – Adam Souza

"Thank you for the New Hampshire training. Maintenance continues to take a beating. We are fighting Management continuously.
